THE WINERY

Embedded in the midst of mountains and vineyards along the Southtyrolean Wine-Road there is the vine-village Kaltern and exactly here, on Wine-Road Nr.1 is situated the winery Ritterhof.

The small winery is lead with devotion by the family of Roner from Tramin.

From generation to generation passed traditions, harmony with nature in combination with latest technology are the base of the production of fruity white wines and full bodied red wines.

The careful cultivation of the vineyards in harmony with nature is the basis of the winery's philosophy.

The micro-climate of the southern part of Southtyrol offers the requirements to choose the right position for situate the different vines.

So we find in 7,5 h own vineyards and 40 ha vineyards of contracted farmer most different soil quality.
